

Russia and its East Asian neighbors

Regions and people beyond borders

ロシアと東アジアの国: 国境を超えた地域と人々

This conference is dedicated to borderland regions and intercultural, transnational processes that took or are taking place in these regions beyond the contemporary national boundaries of Russia, Japan, China and Korea.

FEBRUARY 22
13:00-16:20

KEYNOTE LECTURE Revisiting the 'hyper-border': Shifting realities on the edge of the nation
Paul Richardson, University of Birmingham

Block 1 – Regional identities and discourses

- The Russia-Japan territorial dispute and visa-free exchange with the disputed islands: structure, challenges, media
Georgy Buntilov, Hokkaido University
- The islands of the North Pacific in Russian federal and regional mass media: aspects of analysis
Natalia Potapova, Sakhalin State University

Block 2 – Intercultural communication and regional communities

- The "Russian language world" in South Korea: Ethnic Koreans in Ansan
Svetlana Paichadze, Hokkaido University
- Friendship of People and Friendship of Peoples in Hunchun, China
Ed Pulford, University of Amsterdam

FEBRUARY 23
13:00-15:30

Block 1 – Indigenous history

- Indigenous literatures as a counter-discourse: emergence, forms, methodologies, translations, effects
Daniel Chartier, Université du Québec à Montréal
- Discourses and representation of Ainu history in contemporary Japan
Tatsiana Tsagel'nik, Hokkaido University

Block 2 – Modern history, postwar history, historical memory

- Japan and the Japanese in the memories of Sakhalin Koreans
Yulia Din, Yuzhno-Sakhalinsk Local History Museum
- Soviet historical reconstruction in Japanese popular culture
Aleksandra Jaworowicz-Zimny, Nicolaius Copernicus University

Commentator: Jonathan Bull, Hokkaido University

LOCATION: Clark Memorial Hall, Hokkaido University

＊ ＊ 全文英語での講演ですが日本語通訳は付きます! ＊ ＊

Hosted by Georgy Buntilov and the Research Faculty of Media and Communication

REGISTRATION: send an email to buntilov@imc.hokudai.ac.jp